

SCORE

15. DEBATE

Corral a group of four street drinkers willing to hum a note for one minute in exchange for four cans of strong lager. Indicate the note of D for them to hum in unison with.

Record them humming this note for one minute.

Give them the promised cans of strong lager.

Corral a second group of four street drinkers willing to ooh a note for one minute in exchange for four cans of strong lager.

Indicate the note of F for them to ooh in unison with.

Record them oohing this note for one minute.

Give them the promised cans of strong lager.

Corral a third group of four street drinkers willing to aah a note for one minute in exchange for four cans of strong lager.

Indicate the note of A for them to aah in unison with.

Record them aahing this note for one minute.

Give them the promised cans of strong lager.

Corral a group of five street drinkers willing to howl a note for one minute in exchange for five cans of strong lager.

Indicate the note of D, an octave above the D hummed by the first group, for them to howl in unison with.

Record them howling this note for one minute.

Give them the promised cans of strong lager.

Combine and balance the recordings so they can be played simultaneously.

Gather 17 people together.

This may include the various street drinkers.

Explain what you have done.

Play them the four recordings simultaneously.

Delete recordings.